

In the city of Melbourne (Australia's home of live music) Adam 12 have, for several years now, been the cover act by which all others are measured.

The ability of all four members to sing both harmony and lead vocals, the extraordinary musicianship and their incredible energy and showmanship have put this band head and shoulders above their peers.

The members are Kristin Holland (bass guitar and vocals), Daniel Romano (guitar and vocals), Andrew Gatenby (guitar and vocals) & Ben Wignall (drums and vocals).

These experienced entertainers have also enjoyed success in a number of other musical projects, theatre and film.

As far as repertoire is concerned, the far reaching talents of Adam 12's members allow them the flexibility to play a wide range of exciting material from scorching rock classics of all eras, funky dance favourites and the very, very latest chart hits. And when we say, 'very latest', we mean up to the minute, popular songs as heard in clubs and on radio right now.

If you want a vibrant, professional show that guarantees excitement and fun, then this is the act for you.

Bookings exclusively, through Australian Entertainment Services.

For more information, visit the official Adam 12 website:

www.adam12.com.au