Pete is a Melbourne based saxophonist (alto/baritone/tenor/soprano) who has been performing professionally with various ensembles around town for the last 13 years. Recently his group “PETE MITCHELL QUARTET” released their debut CD “QUIRKY” through move records, which is available Australia wide at good record stores and has received positive airplay and reviews.

Apart from performing his original material at Jazz Clubs such as Bennetts Lane and Dizzys Jazz Bar, he plays a wide variety of jazz standards and popular music at many weddings, corporate functions, tafe's / university's, clubs / pubs, shopping centres (roving acoustic) and product launches etc.(Styles range from modern jazz, funky acid jazz, swing, bossa nova, latin, ballads...Christmas tunes to rock and roll even if required!)

Pete works in Duo / Trio / Quartet / Quintet settings and can add vocals too if required. (Instrumentation can include saxophone, guitar, piano, double or electric bass, drums, trumpet, vocals etc, performed by some of Melbourne’s best musicians) Recent performances include the Launch of the Lexus Centre for Eddie McGuire and the Collingwood Football Club, the St.Kilda Football club Foundation dinner and 2004 & 2005 Melbourne Grand Prix.

A major highlight of Pete’s career so far was spending time and attending a private lesson with one of his all time jazz heroes, Branford Marsalis. More recently he was fortunate enough to jam and perform with members of the Cuban group “Buena Vista Social Club” on their most recent visit to Melbourne. He was also honoured to have Australian jazz legend Don Burrows join him to perform a full set with his trio at a function at Crown.
