

THE JAY FACTOR

Featuring the talents of Natalie Jay and Matt Edmunds, The Jay Factor is truly an act for all occasions. Boasting over 20 years of experience, this polished duo have entertained both globally and at home, appearing at such acclaimed events as The Australian Open, Melbourne Grand Prix, and Melbourne Cup Carnival, to name but a few.

This performance honed duo are equally at home at a private or corporate function, where their unbridled enthusiasm for entertainment has seen them become a welcome regular at a myriad of Melbourne venues and homes. Their combination of stellar vocals, masterful guitar, and world class backing tracks afford them the versatility to take on any situation with ease.

The Jay Factor play a wide range of popular music that will ensure that your next event is one to remember. Their combination of fantastic musical talent and vibrant personality has proven to be a winning recipe that keeps the audience coming back for more!

Your search is over. If it is world class entertainment that you require, then you need look no further than "The Jay Factor".